GAME DAY PROGRAM | SEPT. 5, 2009 | VS. LUTHER COLLEGE

HEAD COACH
JERRY OLSZEWSKI

2nd Season in 2009 | 6-4, 4-4 MIAC
Alma Mater: UW - Stevens Point

Jerry Olszewski was named the 11th head football coach at St. Olaf on March 31, 2008. He guided the Oles to a 6-4 record in his first season, a fall highlighted by a 29-23 win over St. Thomas in an NCAA Division III record six overtimes. The game was the first of three overtime games the team would play (L 20-14 to SJU on Oct. 25, W 27-20 over Gustavus on Nov. 8).

Olszewski was at his alma mater, Wis.-Stevens Point, as defensive coordinator the two seasons prior to his start at St. Olaf. He spent a total seven seasons as an assistant at Division II Minnesota State University-Mankato (1993-96, 1999-02) before a three-year stint as the CEO of the Mankato YMCA.

He also spent one season as the offensive coordinator for the Green Bay Bombers of the Arena Football league (1999) and another as an assistant at California Lutheran University (1998) as defensive line coach. He and his wife Deana have three children, son Jett and daughters Jersey and JJ.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
ROB MCCARTHY

8th Season in 2009
Alma Mater: Concordia College-Moorhead

Rob McCarthy, a 1989 Concordia-Moorhead graduate, enters his 21st year of coaching and eighth as defensive coordinator at St. Olaf.

McCarthy was a student-athlete at Concordia College-Moorhead from 1985-88. During this time, the Cobbers won two MIAC titles and made two NCAA appearances. He was twice All-Conference. McCarthy served on staff at Concordia in 1989. He then coached six seasons at the University of St. Thomas ('90-'94, '00), a span that included a MIAC Championship and a NCAA appearance in 1990. McCarthy moved on to serve as Defensive Coordinator for three seasons ('95-97) at Northwestern College in St. Paul. Northwestern won a conference championship in 1995.

He coached two seasons at UW-Eau Claire ('98-99), where the Blugolds won a WIAC Conference championship in 1998. It was there McCarthy earned a master's degree. Prior to his time at St. Olaf, he was defensive coordinator during the 2001 season at Pensacola High School in Pensacola, Fla. McCarthy and his wife Angie reside in Northfield with their three children: Zach, Emily and Addison.

RECRUITING COORD./SAFETIES
CRAIG STERN

6th Season in 2009
Alma Mater: St. Cloud State Univ.

Craig Stern is in his sixth season at St. Olaf. Since his arrival the Oles are 35-13. Stern, who coached a pair of All-MIAC performers in the secondary last year, has helped bring large, talented classes in as the program's recruiting coordinator. He also serves as the defensive backs coach and strength and conditioning coordinator for the Athletic Department.

Stern came to the hill after a five-year stint at Concordia University-St. Paul. At Concordia-St. Paul, Stern was the defensive coordinator. Under Stern, Concordia was in the top three in league in total defense in each of his three seasons. The Golden Bears won their first conference title and made a playoff appearance for the first time in school history, as a Division II institution, in Stern's tenure. The Golden Bears' rush defense was ranked fourth nationally when they captured a NSIC title in 2003.

Stern was the assistant offensive coordinator at Dana College from 1997-1999, and was an assistant coach at Kimball High School in 1996. A graduate of St. Cloud State University, Stern, his wife Tara and their two children live in St. Paul Park.

Welcome

St. Olaf welcomes Luther College in the 2009 season opener for each school. The Oles are coming off a 6-4 season while Luther went 4-6 in 2008. St. Olaf is 8-1 in its last eight season openers and 15-1 in non-conference games since 2000.

The Series

St. Olaf leads the all-time series 33-16-2... The Oles have won five straight... St. Olaf started the winning streak with a 32-31 win on Sept. 11, 2004... In that game, St. Olaf erased a 31-0 second quarter deficit and won on a 80-yard touchdown from Jason Wilsey to first year Horace Gant... The comeback tied as the fourth-best comeback in NCAA Division III history... Gant was named the MIAC's Player of the Week for his 11-catch, 222-yard collegiate debut... St. Olaf then earned 37-13 and 31-14 wins in 2005 and 2006 before a nail-bitter to open 2007... St. Olaf won a 23-14 game last season in Decorah to open 2008.

St. Olaf Preview

Defensive Line

Three seniors will key the defensive line: Nick Tolen, C.J. Tabasky and Zac Henschel. Tolen was second among linemen, behind only the graduated Michael Williams, with 23.0 tackles last season. He had 4.5 for a loss, including two sacks. Henschel will be the team's top returning rushers from the outside. He had career-bests for sacks (4.0) and tackles for a loss (8.0) last year. Tabasky was in on 14 stops and recorded one of the team's two safeties. There will be a competition for the final DE spot. Contenders are Corey Tutewohl, Colin Ferrian, and Brian Albrecht. Max Rustad, Nick Ondler, and Transfer Dustin Heiser will provide good depth on the interior line. Max Rustad had three sacks and five tackles for a loss in 2008.

Linebackers

The 2008 team was led in tackles by each of the three linebackers, and all will return in 2009. Senior Adam Concannon, an All-MIAC selection as a sophomore, will pace the group. Concannon had another solid season last fall, collecting 50.0 tackles, including a team-best 42 assists. He added a sack, 6.5 for a loss, an interception and three pass break-ups in the team's 6-4 season. Senior Eric Werdahl and junior Patrick Luevano each shared the team lead, with 52.5 tackles each, and will be expected to provide more of the same this year. Werdahl added a eight for a loss while Luevano had 5.5.

Defensive Backs

As with the linebackers, all starters will return to the secondary this season. Carson Jones and Chris DeLuca will return at the safety spot. The emergence of Nick Branjord at safety has allowed Ryan Skluzacek to move to corner where he will join returning starters Tyler Jones and Justin Lanman. Jones had a team-high four picks last year while Skluzacek and DeLuca had one each and were in the top six on the team in tackles. Carson Jones returns after a 2008 season that saw him get solid numbers in tackles (40.0), interceptions (2) and fumble recoveries (2).

Offensive Line

Schantzen will return for his senior campaign this fall with a number of returning starters, including junior Drew Penz (6-3, 270) and senior Kyle Glanton (6-0, 280). Adam Koenig (6-6, 285) had a solid first season in a starting role last year and will start opposite of Schantzen. The team also brings back sophomores Carl Stone (6 3, 290) and Daine Jensch (6-4, 265) and senior center Jared Fisher (6-4, 274).

Quarterback

John Haberman stepped into a starting role at quarterback after spending two seasons as a run-only backup. Haberman, who made just seven passing attempts his first two seasons, had a strong finish his first as a starter. He completed 140 of his 241 attempts for 1,501 yards and nine touchdowns against 12 interceptions.

Receivers

One of Haberman's favorite targets in 2008 was Antonio Jennings, who was second on the team with 28 receptions. Jennings should be the team's top receiver.

Tight Ends

Mike Shimshock will return as the team's primary tight end. Shimshock had 10 receptions in the 2008 campaign and has three career touchdowns.

Running Backs

To fill in for the graduated Watkins and Endsley, the Oles will turn to a variety of backs early to find the best replacements. Utility back and return specialist Clark will get more touches. Clark, a preseason Consensus Draft Services All-America selection as a kick returner, had just 10 carries and 18 receptions last year but should see many more this year. Foss and Daren Geyen could also get carries as the team will try to establish the run game early and often.

Special Teams

Clark will remain the return specialist after a stellar first year campaign. He returned 16 kicks in 2008 for 507 yards (31.7/return) and a touchdown and was also the team's primary punt returner, averaging 10.6 yards with a touchdown in 19 tries. He ranked fourth in the country in kickoff return average and 29th on punts.

Josiah Powell appears to be the favorite to do the kicking, which was an area of concern last fall. St. Olaf missed five field goals inside 30 yards (2-for-7). Powell was one of three that rotated through the place-kicking duties in 2008. He missed his only field goal attempt and went 4-of-5 on PATs.

Shimshock will assume the punting duties, replacing graduated all-conference Matt Nelson.

Up Next

St. Olaf plays at Pacific Lutheran University next Saturday at 2:30 p.m. CST. The Oles opened the home-and-home series with a 17-0 win last year.
