HISTORY

FACILITIES

THIS IS ST. OLAF

Quick Facts

- Location: East Side of Campus
- Built: 1930, 1992 (Track)
- Surface: Natural Grass (Football, Infield)
- Last Renovation: 2002 (New Bleachers, Press Box)
- Teams that compete on: Football, Men's and Women's Track and Field

THE ADE CHRISTENSON COMPLEX

MANITOU FIELD AND TRACK

The Ade Christenson Complex on the east side of campus is home to Manitou Field, Track and Tom Porter Hall. The playing and running surfaces are first-class competition sites for the St. Olaf football and track teams. The bleachers and press box were renovated in the spring of 2002. The venue is also the home of the college's graduation ceremonies.

"The track is such a nice surface to train and compete on. Running on it brings to mind fun memories and excitement for upcoming seasons."
 - Kate Duwell
 Senior, Cross Country, Track & Field

TOM PORTER HALL

Tom Porter Hall is home to two classrooms/meeting rooms, locker rooms, an athletic training room, offices and a weight room, making it a convenient home to the football, track and hockey teams. The lobby has a view of the west endzone and track.

Tom Porter Hall Quick Facts

- Location: Ade Christenson Complex
- Built: 1992
- Amenities: Offices (Football), Meeting Rooms, Locker Rooms, Weight Room, Equipment Room, Athletic Training Room

"I couldn't think of a place I'd rather be on a crisp, fall afternoon than playing football on Manitou Field. With the campus rising above the field and the leaves changing colors all around, in my mind there is no better small-college football environment anywhere in the nation."

- Evan Endsley, Senior, All-MIAC Football Captain

TOSTRUD CENTER

The 95,000-square foot Tostrud Center, a state-of-the-art recreation and fitness center, boasts an aerobics training facility, cutting-edge exercise machines, a weight-training area, an elevated walking and jogging ring, a six-lane 200-meter track, a 48-foot-high rock-climbing wall. Tostrud has two 90-foot batting cages for baseball and softball and can accommodate four volleyball or basketball courts and five tennis courts. Completed in 2002, Tostrud hosted the 2005 NCAA Division III Wrestling Championships and the 2006 NCAA Division III Indoor Track and Field Championships.

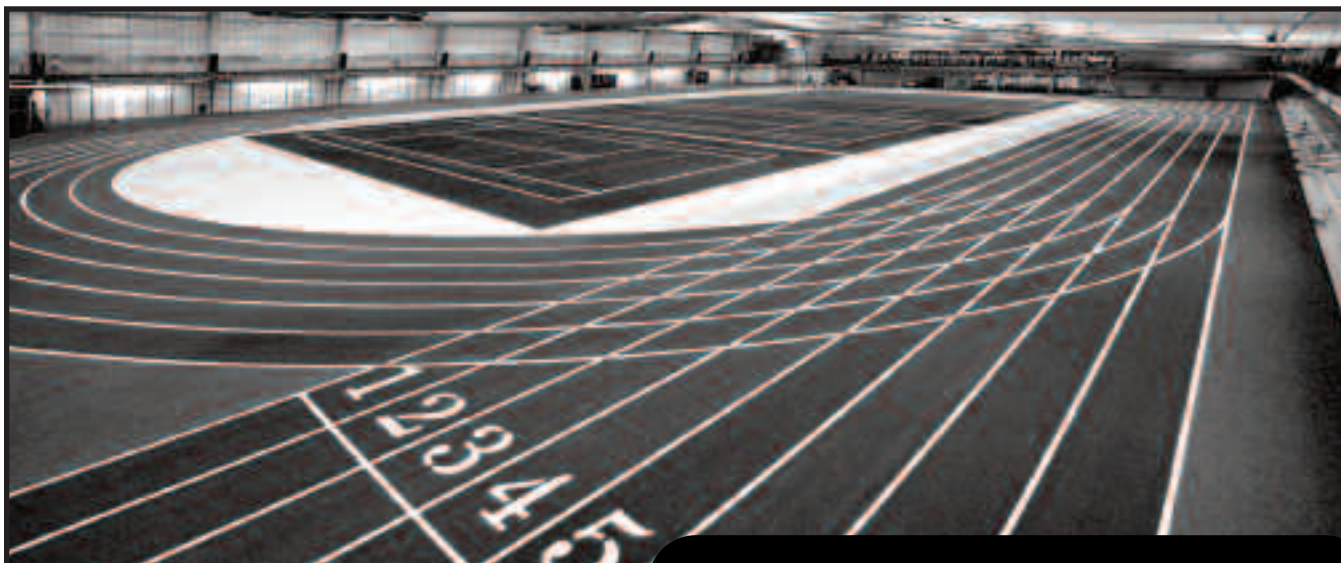

Quick Facts

- Location: West Side of Campus
- Built: 2002
- Teams that compete in: Men's and Women's Indoor Track and Field

"Tostrud Center is the best indoor sports facility in my experience. There is so much to do at Tostrud that I feel like it takes all four years to accomplish it all."

- Matt Nelson
Senior, Football

"I like the fact that everything Tostrud offers is available anytime you need it. The weight room and fitness room have anything an athlete needs to get better, and Tostrud is big enough to allow the teams to practice there on rainy days."

- Cory Watkins
Senior, Football Captain

SKOGLUND CENTER ARENA

Skoglund Center hosts wrestling meets, basketball and volleyball games and other events in its 2,008-seat Arena. In the summer of 2000, the arena's bleachers were replaced with individual stadium-style chairs, making it one of the only Division III facilities in the nation of its kind. Skoglund also has a fieldhouse, raquetball courts, wrestling room, sauna, locker rooms, an athletic training room and the athletic department offices.

2007-08 IN REVIEW

"Skoglund creates such a great atmosphere for spectators and competitors. Every time I walk on the floor I am proud to be an Ole. I can feel the history and passion of Oles who have competed here. It's an exciting atmosphere to play in, one that I wouldn't trade for anything."
