OLE GAMEDAY PROGRAM

WELCOME

Welcome to Skoglund Center for 2010 St. Olaf College volleyball. Tonight is the first of two days of the St. Olaf Invitational featuring a combined six teams from the MIAC (St. Olaf, Hamline, Macalester) and the UMAC (Martin Luther, Presentation, Bethany Lutheran).

St. Olaf is coming off a 27-5 season. Last fall the Oles were third in the MIAC in the regular season before advancing to the league's playoff finale and the NCAA Tournament.

The Oles return first team American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-America outside hitter Kim Smisek and All-America honorable mention setter Kelly Prunty to lead the charge. Smisek led the nation in kills (4.93/set) while Prunty was led the MIAC and was third in the country in set assists (11.11/set).

Smisek's numbers were staggering in 2009. She was in double-digits for kills in all but one match (3-0 loss at CSB on Nov. 7) and had at least 20 eight times. Her 537 kills, even in the 25-point rallying era, rank third in school history. Smisek has an outside chance at the school record for career kills, as she needs 660 to surpass Nicole (Trnka) Hess, the new head coach at the College of Saint Benedict.
