

Minutes of the New Course Proposals Sub-Committee of the Curriculum Committee
December 3, 2008

Present: Kathy Granquist, Matt Jobe, John Schade, Gregory Walter, and Colin Wells.

Chair Walter called the meeting to order at 3:31pm.

Colins Wells fielded questions concerning the renumbering of English courses. It was affirmed that the English Department World avoid works in translation with occasional exceptions for one work in a class. Topics courses will only be taught once or twice. If they are intended to be taught on a regular basis, they will go through the proposal process.

The renumbering of English courses proposal was approved.

The following courses were approved:

Asian Studies 200 Arts and culture of Japan (proposed by Dan Dressen)

Religion 2xx Quest of Ring, Grail, and Cross (proposed by Greg Walter)

Sociology/Anthropology 299 Topics in SoAnth. (proposed by Tom Williamson)

Music 229 Jazz Improvisation (proposed by David Hagedorn) with minor changes to the draft catalog course description

Meeting adjourned at 4:06pm

Respectfully Submitted,

Justin Merritt

Secretary pro tempore
