

Appeals Board (from the St. Olaf Faculty Manual)

- a. The St. Olaf College Appeals Board is established to insure that the requirements of appeal and procedural due process in student disciplinary proceedings will be fulfilled by the College and followed by the students. The St. Olaf College Appeals Board has appellate jurisdiction over cases appealed by defendants from the College Judiciary, Honor Council, Student Judicial Council, and administrative hearings, and may hear appeals from defendants who have exhausted other avenues of appeal for redress from alleged violations of their right to due process.
- b. Personnel
 - 1) Four faculty representatives elected at large
 - 2) Two students
 - 3) Dean of Students or a designated representative
- c. The term of office for elected faculty members shall be two years with two members elected each year.
- d. In instances in which a faculty member is temporarily unable to serve, the Appeals Board may elect a temporary replacement from the previous faculty member of the Board.
