

Curriculum Coordinating Committee (from the St. Olaf College Faculty Manual)

- a. General purpose is philosophical review of the entire curriculum. It will meet, as needed, when convened by the Chair of CEPC. It will send minutes to and, when appropriate, consult with the chair of the Assessment Committee, the College Librarian, the Director of Academic Research and Planning, and the Associate Deans of the Faculties and Department Chairs.
- b. Responsibilities include:
 - 1) To consider the relations among the various parts of the curriculum -- e.g., general education, majors, electives, and off-campus study -- with special attention to their coherence, balance, and suitability to the mission of the College.
 - 2) To facilitate communication among the three major curriculum committees of the College.
 - 3) To consider information from the Assessment Committee and other sources that might suggest improvements to achieve better balance among the major parts of the curriculum, greater coherence of the parts, or better service to the mission of the College.
 - 4) To make recommendations to the faculty, to college committees, or to the administration concerning the items above.
- c. Personnel
 - 1) The Chair of the Curriculum and Educational Policies Committee, Convener
 - 2) The Chair of the General Education Committee
 - 3) The Chair of the International and Domestic Off-Campus Studies Committee
 - 4) The Dean of the College or the Dean's designate
