

Service and Support Staff

This group was established in 1988. Its function, as described in the letter sent to the service and support staff on February 3, 1988, is to serve as a communications link between the service and support staff and the administration, bringing staff issues of concern to my attention, and, in turn, communicating information on issues of interest to your co-workers. Members serve two-year terms.