

Proposal to rectify inconsistent wording in the Faculty Manual regarding Special Appointments (4.X.3)

CURRENT WORDING of the Faculty Manual 4.X.3 Promotion in Rank that RPC suggests amending:

3. The College uses the designation “Distinguished Lecturer,” “Visiting Lecturer,” or “Visiting Professor” to identify persons appointed to the faculty, usually on a temporary basis, to whom the College policies of promotion, tenure, and rank do not apply.

PROPOSED WORDING of the Faculty Manual 4.X.3 Promotion in Rank:

3. The College uses the designation “[Faculty Member] in Residence” to identify persons hired on Special Appointments and governed by the provisions on Special Appointments as outlined in Faculty Manual 4.VI.C.

Rationale:

This proposal will bring the language of Faculty Manual 4.X.3 into line with the regulations of Faculty Manual 4.VI.C, adopted at the May 2002 Faculty Meeting (RPC 01-02:4). The Greensheet for RPC 01-02:4 is available at:
