

Planning Checksheets for Asian Studies Students
(Classes of 2014 and ongoing)

Asian Studies Major (page 1)
Asian Studies, China, Japan Concentrations (page 2)

Name:

Date:

Asian Studies Major

Two courses in Chinese or Japanese above 112 or its equivalent*:

ASIAN 275

ASIAN 397 or 399

(or in special circumstances, another 300 level ASIAN Course approved by the Department Chair in consultation with the instructor)

Six elective courses concerning Asia (including Asian Conversations courses) see:

<http://www.stolaf.edu/depts/asianstudies/courses/coursesforcredit.html>

List all six courses here, then make sure you meet the specifications below.

Of the six courses listed above, make sure:

At least two at level II or III taken on campus:

No more than two at level I

No more than four elective courses (of the above) about any one country

No language courses may count

*If you completed your language requirement by proficiency testing
you need one additional elective course on Asia

Asian Studies Concentration

Six courses about Asia are required:

List all six courses here, then make sure you meet the specifications below.

--	--	--	--	--	--

Of the six courses listed above, make sure:

At least two at level II or III taken on campus:

--	--

No language courses may count

China Studies Concentration

Six courses are required:

Four Chinese language courses above Chinese 112:

--	--	--	--

Two other courses focusing on China; no language courses may count in this category:

--	--

Japan Studies Concentration

Six courses are required:

Four Japanese language courses above Japanese 112:

--	--	--	--

Two other courses focusing on Japan; no language courses may count in this category:

--	--