

Nirgendwo in Afrika

Caroline Link, 2002, 135 minutes

in German with German subtitles (for the hearing-impaired)

Tuesday, December 8, 2009

Viking Theater, 7 pm

This Oscar-winning film tells the story of a Jewish family that flees Germany in 1938 to Kenya, where their new life challenges the marriage between Walter and Jettl while their once-shy daughter Regina blossoms.

After the war is over Walter is offered a position as a judge in Frankfurt.

After so many years in Kenya, can he go back to post-Holocaust Germany, and will his family go with him?