

PSYCHOLOGY MAJOR ADVISING WORKSHEET

(for students entering in Fall 2009 or later)

Use this worksheet to plan your schedule and keep track of your progress in the major.

Timing (timing shown is ideal; actual timing may vary)	Course #	Course Name	GE Credit (check S.I.S. for more info)	Course Taken (check off or write in the # of the course you have taken – or plan to take)
First Year
	125	Principles of Psychology (prerequisite for all other courses*)	IST, HBS
Introduction to the Major	130	History and Methods of Psychology (may be taken concurrently with Psychology 125 or later)
By end of Sophomore year
	Statistics 110, 212, or 263	Statistics	AQR
	230	Research Methods (Prerequisite: Statistics)	WRI
First, Sophomore & Junior years
	235, 236, or 237, or 238	Natural Science Core Courses Choose 2 of the following: Sensation & Perception (235), Conditioning & Learning (236), Cognition, Learning & Memory (237), or Biopsychology (238)	SED for 235, 236, 237 IST for 238	Course #1: _____ Course #2: _____
	241, 244, 247 or 249	Social Science Core Courses Choose 2 of the following: Developmental Psychology (241), Psychology of Personality (244), Psychopathology (247) or Social Psychology (249)	HBS	Course #1: _____ Course #2: _____
Junior & Senior years
(Only 1 Psychology 396 or 398 may be used to fulfill this requirement; Psychology 393 & 394 count toward the major but do not fulfill this requirement.)		Level 300 Seminars Choose 2 seminars: Check the department website for descriptions of Level 300 seminars offered each semester. (Prerequisite: Research Methods (230))		Seminar #1: _____ Seminar #2: _____
		Elective Course in Psychology (One additional psych course, any level, taken at any time.)		Course: _____
				Total = 11 courses (10 Psychology + 1 Statistics)

*Students with AP Psychology exam scores of 4 or 5 receive credit equivalent to Psychology 125 and may take any other courses for which they have completed the prerequisites.