HYMN

Now Thank We All Our God

Now thank we all our God, with heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things has done, in Whom this world rejoices;
Who from our mothers' arms has blest us on our way
With countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us all in grace, and guide us when perplexed;
And free us from all harm, in this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given;
The Son and Spirit blest, who reign in highest Heaven;
The one eternal God, whom earth and heav'n adore;
For thus it was, is now, and shall be evermore.

The audience will please be seated.

COLLEGE HYMN

Fram! Fram! St. Olaf!

The audience will please stand.

Kristmenn, Krossmenn in dauntless quest,
Led by the Spirit of truth,
Reared for the race a home in the west,
Filled with the song of youth.
Founded in faith to render light,
Radiant today it crowns the height.
Rising glorious and, under God, victorious,
Fram! Fram! St. Olaf!
Impelled we sing, Sing to thee,
Fram! Fram! St. Olaf! The hilltops ring:
Fram! Fram! Free!

Grant that spirit to lead us still
Onward as ages unroll.
Caught by the Krossmenn, shrined on the hill,
Steepled to lift the soul.
Give us again the heart aglow
Stirred by the songs of Manitou.
Ever glorious and, under God, victorious,
Fram! Fram! St. Olaf!
Impelled we sing, Sing to thee,
Fram! Fram! St. Olaf! The hilltops ring:
Fram! Fram! Free!

Sudip Bhandari '14

Senior Speaker

As an international student from Kathmandu, Nepal, Sudip Bhandari created an independent public health major through St. Olaf's Center for Integrative Studies that combined the natural and social sciences with his passion for human rights and social justice. He received the Braulick Endowed Scholarship and the Service Leadership Scholarship from St. Olaf, studied abroad on Global Semester, is president of the St. Olaf chapter of the Blue Key Honor Society, cofounder of STO Talks (an annual event inspired by TED Talks), and cofounder of the Ole Thrift Shop.

An entrepreneurial grant from the college's Piper Center for Vocation and Career enabled Sudip to initiate the Anne Frank Project Nepal in 2011, an ongoing effort that uses the inspiring story of Anne Frank to educate Nepalese students about the Holocaust, a part of world history missing from Nepalese textbooks. The Anne Frank Center in New York City honored Sudip in 2012 by making him the first undergraduate student to receive its Outstanding Educator Award, part of its annual Spirit of Anne Frank Awards. A grant from the Davis Projects for Peace initiative that same year made it possible for Sudip to expand Anne Frank Project Nepal and establish a library in rural Nepal.

In addition to the honors he received from the Anne Frank Center and Davis Projects for Peace, Sudip is the campus representative for the Clinton Global Initiative University (CGI U) Conference, an annual meeting designed to engage the next generation of leaders on college campuses around the world. Sudip most recently received a Rotary Global grant, which will enable him to pursue a one-year master's degree at the University of Amsterdam in the Netherlands, where he will study conflict resolution and governance.

Before enrolling at the University of Amsterdam in the fall of 2015, Sudip will spend the summer in Warsaw, Poland, as part of his Humanity in Action Fellowship, a program that brings together international groups of university students and recent graduates to explore issues such as discrimination and resistance among minority groups. He will follow that experience with a Global Health Corps Fellowship through the Global Health Delivery Project at Harvard University, which seeks to advance health equity around the globe.

Toomas Hendrik Ilves, President of the Republic of Estonia

Commencement Speaker

Toomas Hendrik Ilves, born to Estonian parents living in Stockholm, Sweden, graduated from Columbia University in New York City in 1976 and received his master's degree in psychology from the University of Pennsylvania in 1978. In 1984, Ilves moved to Germany to work at the Munich office of Radio Free Europe, first as a researcher and foreign policy analyst and later as head of the Estonian desk.

From 1993 to 1996, Ilves served in Washington, D.C., as the ambassador of the Republic of Estonia to the United States and Canada. During this time, he launched the Tiigrihüpe (Tiger's Leap) initiative with Estonian Education Minister Jaak Aaviksoo. The goal of this project was to develop and expand computer and network infrastructures in Estonia, with an emphasis on education, placing computer labs in every Estonian school and providing students with internet access.

From 1996 to 1998, Ilves served as Estonia's minister of foreign affairs and, after a brief period as chair of the North Atlantic Institute, was reappointed minister of foreign affairs, serving until 2002. Ilves was a member of the Estonian Parliament for two years and, in 2004, was elected a member of the European Parliament, where he served as vice president of the Foreign Affairs Committee.

As a member of the European Parliament, Ilves initiated the Baltic Sea Strategy, designed to facilitate environmental and economic cooperation in the Baltic Sea region and increase safety, security, and prosperity among the eight countries involved. The initiative was subsequently implemented as the official regional policy of the European Union.

In 2006, Ilves was elected president of the Republic of Estonia and was re-elected for a second term in 2011.

During his presidency, Ilves has held several high positions in the European Union in the field of information and communication technology. He served as chair of the EU Task Force on e-Health from 2011 to 2012. From 2012 to 2013, at the invitation of the European Commission, he was chair of the European Cloud Partnership Steering Board.

Ilves has spoken and written extensively about integration in the Baltic Sea region relating to economics, politics, energy, health care, education, and information technology, as well as transatlantic relations, e-government, and other related topics. He has published numerous articles and essays on topics ranging from Estonian language, history, and literature to foreign and security policy and cyber security. His books include essay collections in Estonian, Finnish, Latvian, Hungarian, and Russian.

THE COLLEGE HYMN

“Fram! Fram! St. Olaf!” takes its title from “Fram, Fram, Kristmenn, Krossmenn,” the motto of St. Olaf College. The motto — which means “Forward, Forward, People of Christ, People of the Cross” — was adopted in 1874 by the Reverend Bernt Julius Muus, founder of St. Olaf. It is derived from the battle cry of Norway’s patron saint and eternal king, Olav II Haraldsson, King of Norway (A.D. 1016–1030). Olav’s death at the Battle of Stiklestad made him a rallying point for nationalistic movements and helped establish the Christian church in Norway.

The song was written by F. Melius Christiansen — longtime conductor of the St. Olaf Choir — in 1927 and was used for the first time at Commencement in 1935. Though it was not sung again at Commencement until 1966, it has been a permanent part of the ceremony ever since.

THE ST. OLAF COLLEGE GONFALON

Composed of the college colors and showcasing the college seal, the St. Olaf College gonfalon leads the commencement procession. Following the gonfalon in the procession will be President David R. Anderson ’74 and Provost and Dean of the College Marci Sortor, the platform party, the faculty, the traditional black and gold class banner announcing the class year, and the graduating class.

Gonfalons first appeared in medieval Italy, where every hamlet had its own brightly colored banner with symbolic references to the town. It was carried in official processions by a gonfaloniere. Today, gonfalons appear in college and university commencement exercises worldwide.

THE ACADEMIC PROCESSION

The traditional academic procession introduces many of the more formal and significant events at St. Olaf, as it does on most college and university campuses. Although the history of wearing distinctive apparel as an indication of scholarship and academic rank dates back to 1321, the practice was not adopted throughout the United States until about 1900.

The cap worn almost universally in academic processions is the Oxford cap, better known as the mortarboard. It is always black. A different style, called the Cambridge cap, resembles a large beret.

The use of a dark robe in academic processions is thought to have arisen from the clerical practice of wearing a cape or mantle in religious processions in the 12th and 13th centuries, when universities arose from cathedral schools.

Traditionally, gowns are also black. However, a number of universities have adopted alternate gowns that use their traditional school color.

The academic hoods, worn around the neck and down the back of the gown, are lined with the official colors of the college or university conferring the degree. The binding or edging of the hood is usually distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains: economics, copper; education, light blue; fine arts, brown; humanities, white; law, purple; library science, lemon; medicine, green; music, pink; nursing, apricot; philosophy, dark blue; physical education, sage green; science, golden yellow; social science, cream; social work, citron; speech, silver gray; theology, scarlet.

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES

Please Note: As a courtesy to all graduates and members of their families, everyone in the audience is asked to remain until the end of the commencement ceremony.

Skoglund Center, where ceremonies will be held in the event of inclement weather, is equipped with a hearing assistance sound system for those who are hearing impaired. Please contact an usher if you would like to obtain a receiver.

The following names do not constitute an official graduation list. The students listed here were considered candidates for the degree indicated as of 12 noon on Friday, May 23, 2014, when the program was printed. We have made every effort to ensure this list is as complete and accurate as possible.
