

SING FOR JOY

June 2002

From
The Reverend
Alvin Rueter

Congratulations on 50 years of marriage!

I was pleased to be invited to Eugene & Mary Sukup's golden wedding anniversary on April 6 in Clear Lake, Iowa. I congratulated them on finding each other and on setting a fine example in establishing and maintaining a Christian family. I thanked them again for Sukup Manufacturing's support of Sing For Joy. They know what a precarious history we had; the program was dropped by three previous sponsors (each time, when a new administration came in).

Sukup Manufacturing, Sauder Woodworking, St. Olaf College, and you—our listeners—have given us security. Thank you, Eugene & Mary, and all the rest of you. We don't take your support for granted.

Sing For Joy turning up in unexpected places

A postcard from Harlingen, Texas calls our program "delightful." The postcard says that Sing For Joy comes from WCPE of North Carolina on KMBH, Harlingen, Texas. I was bewildered about this until I remembered what I reported in one of my columns last year: WCPE makes its programming available free of charge, in various ways, for satellite reception—home dish users, the internet, and on cable TV. I then asked WCPE for the list shown here. I was surprised to learn that even other radio stations are making use of WCPE's broadcasts. In case you have friends and relatives in these places, please let them know about us.

Sing For Joy at these additional places on Sunday at 7:30 a.m., Eastern time:
