Brighter Visions Beam Afar:
Glimpses of the Resurrection and Eternal Life

Psalms and Motets for the Season

Our Soul Waits for the Lord from Two Quiet Psalms

Our soul waits for the Lord, he is our help and shield.
Yea, our heart is glad because we trust,
we trust in his holy name.

Behold, the eye of the Lord is on those who fear him,
on those who hope in his steadfast love.
Let thy steadfast love, O Lord, be upon us, even as we hope in thee.

— Psalm 33:20, 21, 18, 22

All Glory be to God on High

For God So Loved the World

Heinrich Schütz

For God so loved the world that He gave His own begotten Son, that whoever believeth in Him shall not perish,
but have eternal life.

— John 3:16

Surrexit pastor bonus

Orlando di Lasso

Surrexit pastor bonus
qui animam suam posuit pro ovibus suis et pro grege suo, mori dignatus est.
Alleluia.

The good shepherd is risen who gave his life for his sheep, and was worthy to die for his flock.
Alleluia.

— Matins Responsory for Easter Monday
HYMN 375: ¡Aleluya! Cristo resucitó

Please remain seated. All join after stanza three.

Praise Ye the Lord

Praise ye the Lord, the Almighty, the King of all creation;
Praise him, my soul, for he is thy strength and salvation.
    Sing for his sake!
Psaltery and harp, awake!
    Sound forth in glad adoration.

Praise ye the Lord who doth guide and defend thee;
Surely his goodness and mercy shall ever attend thee;
    Ponder anew
What the Almighty can do
Who with his love doth befriend thee.

— text: Joachim Neander, after Psalms 103 and 150; trans: Catherine Winkworth

Salmo 150

Laudate Dominum in sanctus ejus:
Praise the Lord in his sacred places,
Laudate eum in firmamento vinutis ejus.
praise him in the firmament of his power.

Laudate eum in virtutibus ejus:
Praise him for his mighty acts,
Laudate eum secundum multitudinem
Praise him according to his excellent greatness.
magnitudinis ejus.

Laudate eum in sono tubae:
Praise him with the sound of the trumpet, Laudate eum in psalterio et cithara.
praise him with the psaltery and harp.

Laudate eum in tympano et choro:
Praise him with the timbrel and the dance,
Laudate eum in chordis et organo.
praise him with strings and pipe.

Laudate eum in cymbalis benesonantibus:
Praise him with high-sounding cymbals, Laudate eum in cymbalis jubilationis:
praise him with cymbals of joy.
omnis spiritus laudet Dominum.

Let everything that has breath praise the Lord!
Chorus from Cantata 37

I will lift up my eyes unto the hills.
From whence my help cometh?
My help cometh from the Lord who hath made heav’n and earth.

— Psalm 121:1-2

Chorale from Cantata 12

Ain’-a That Good News

I got a crown up in-a the Kingdom,
Ain’-a that good news!

I’m a-goin’ to lay down this worl’,
Goin’-a shoulder up-uh my cross,
Goin’-a take it home-a to my Jesus,
Ain’-a that good news!

I got a harp up in-a the Kingdom,
Ain’-a that good news!

Chorus

Chorus

I got a robe up in-a the Kingdom,
Ain’-a that good news!

Chorus

I got a Savior in-a the Kingdom,
Ain’-a that good news!

Chorus

I’m a-goin’ to lay down this worl’,
Goin’-a shoulder up-uh my cross,
Goin’-a take it home-a to my Jesus,
Ain’-a that good news, my Lawd!
And I saw a new heaven

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth:
For the first heaven and the first earth passed away;
and there was no more sea.

And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, “Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them and be their God.”

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes:
And there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, nor shall there be any more pain,
for the former things are passed away.

— Revelation 21:1-4

HYMN 426: Sing with all the saints in glory

Please remain seated.

I saw the Lord

I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

Above it stood the seraphim:
each one had six wings;
with twain he cover’d his face,
and with train he covered his feet,
and with twain he did fly,
and one cried to one another:

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Hosts:
the whole earth is full of his glory.

John Stainer

And the posts of the door mov’d at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

O Trinity! O Unity!
Be present as we worship thee,
and with the songs that angels sing, unite the hymns of praise we bring.

The whole earth is full of his glory.
Amen.

— Isaiah 6:1-4

Matthew Bacon • organ
HYMN 750: Lord, thee I love with all my heart

Please stand.

Stanza 1 – unison
Stanza 2 – begin in harmony, unison at “Let no false teaching … ”
Stanza 3 – unison

Never weather-beaten sail

Never weather-beaten sail more willing bent to shore, ever tired pilgrims limbs affected slumber more,
Than my weary spirit now longs to fly out of my troubled breast:
O come quickly, sweetest Lord, and take my soul to rest!

Ever blooming are the joys of heaven’s high Paradise,
Cold age deafs not there our ears nor vapour dim our eyes:
Glory there the sun outshines; whose beams the Blessed only see:
O come quickly, glorious Lord, and raise my spirit to Thee!

— Thomas Campion

Day by Day

All day, all night,
angels watchin’ over me, my Lord.
All day, all night,
angels watchin’ over me.

Day by day, your mercies, Lord, attend me, bringing comfort to my anxious soul.
Day by day, the blessings, Lord, you send me
draw me nearer to my heav’nly goal.

Love divine, beyond all mortal measure, brings to naught the burdens of my quest;
Savior, lead me to the home I treasure, where at last I’ll find eternal rest.

Day by day, I know you will provide me strength to serve and wisdom to obey:
I will seek your loving will to guide me
o’er the paths I struggle day by day.

O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing

O for a thousand tongues to sing
my great Redeemer’s praise, the glories of my God and King,
the triumphs of his grace!

My gracious Master and my God, assist me to proclaim,
to spread through all the earth abroad
the honors of thy name.

Jesus! the name that charms our fears, that bids our sorrows cease;
’tis music in the sinner’s ears,
’tis life and health, and peace.

Hear him, ye deaf; his praise, ye dumb, your loosened tongues employ;
ye blind, behold your Savior come,
and leap, ye lame, for joy.

― Charles Wesley

The term cantor is the historic designation for the vocation of the Lutheran Church musician, one whose calling includes leading the music of the church and contributing to the care, spiritual life and ministry of the church. The cantor normally serves as organist, director of choirs and instrumental groups, and teaches, encourages, and nurtures the musical talent of the congregation, and is often musically active in the larger community in which the congregation is situated.

While some Christian traditions emphasize congregational singing, or, some emphasize sophisticated art music, the Lutheran tradition has from its beginning encouraged the reciprocal interaction of congregational song and art music of the most sophisticated kind. The result is an environment in which congregations, musicians, and composers all contribute to a vibrant worship life.

Cantorei is one of eight co-curricular choral ensembles on campus. The St. Olaf Cantorei was established in the 1960s as the Campus Choir to provide opportunities for more students to participate in the St. Olaf choral tradition.

In 1986, under the direction of John Ferguson, the choir assumed its present name, which comes from the German, Kantorei. Like its historic prototype, the 80-voice ensemble is a relatively complete musical organization of instrumentalists and singers which has become known for creative programming blending the St. Olaf choral tradition with instrumental color, uniquely honed and focused to lead worship and provide a distinctive musical and spiritual experience.

James E. Bobb joins the St. Olaf faculty with more than 20 years’ experience directing church music in Lutheran and United Church of Christ congregations.

Bobb holds performer’s certificates and M.M. degrees and in organ and harpsichord performance and literature from the Eastman School of Music where his teachers included Russell Saunders and David Craighead in organ and Arthur Haas in harpsichord. His undergraduate work was at Capital University where his teachers were Janet Linker in organ and Frank Hussey in piano.

As the Minister of Music at First Congregational Church, Columbus, Ohio from 2009-2012, Bobb presided over a three-manual 1972 Rudolph von Becherath organ of 73 ranks, a four-manual 1931 W. W. Kimball organ of 66 ranks, four parish ensembles and two concert series. He also taught organ and organ literature at Capital University in Columbus. For 15 years prior to that, Bobb served the Lutheran Church of the Incarnate Word in Rochester, New York. There he led parish ensembles of all ages, conducted the St. John Passion and other works by Bach, Buxtehude, Schütz, Gabrieli, Purcell, and Telemann, and led the choir on a tour of Sweden. Also in Rochester, he was director of the Rochester Bach Festival, an instructor in Sacred Music at the Eastman School of Music, Adjunct Professor of organ at Nazareath College, and a chapter dean of the American Guild of Organists.

At the harpsichord, Bobb has performed Bach’s Goldberg Variations in Manhattan, Boston, Rochester, and Baltimore. He has appeared as organ and harpsichord soloist, conductor, and continuo player with The Publick Musick and the Rochester Bach Festival. With The Publick Musick, he had appeared in New York, Indiana, Maine, and Germany, and has recorded music of Telemann and Vivaldi. Bobb has also enjoyed leading hymn festivals in Ohio, New York, Georgia, and Oklahoma.
