~ Dr. Sarah McKoin, conductor ~
A passionate advocate of new music and music education, Dr. Sarah McKoin currently serves as the Director of Bands and Professor of Conducting at Texas Tech University. Additionally, she is the Artistic Advisor for the Concordia Santa Fe ensemble “(r)Evolution”, a contemporary wind-centric ensemble offering divergent and engaging contemporary chamber music.

The Texas Tech Symphonic Wind Ensemble has twice performed for the Texas Music Educators Association Conference, as well as performing for the College Band Director’s National Association. In addition to the world premiere recordings of Chen Yi’s wind Music, Dr. McKoin’s ensemble recorded the world premiere of Narong Prancharoen’s work “Chakra” on his CD entitled “Phenomenon”. She has been recorded on the Naxos, Albany and Mark recording labels.

Prior to her appointment in Texas, McKoin served on the faculties at the University of Missouri Kansas City, and SUNY-Buffalo. Additionally, McKoin spent several summers in residence on the conducting faculty at the Brevard Music Center in Brevard, North Carolina as the Director of the Transylvania Wind Ensemble. She has taught at the Interlochen Arts Academy and maintains an active schedule as a guest conductor and clinician. She has traveled extensively throughout the United States and abroad including engagements in Guangzhou, China and Taipei, Taiwan and Canada. She served as producer with the Israeli Chamber Orchestra and the famous Castellani-Andriaccio guitar duo on the world premiere recording of Roberto Sierra’s Fantasia Correliana.

Dr. McKoin holds degrees from University of Texas at Austin, Wichita State University and Michigan State University. She is professionally active in the College Band Director’s National Association as well as TMEA, TBA, Phi Beta Mu, Pi Kappa Lambda and holds honorary memberships in Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma.

Kurt Claussen has taught saxophone and band for more than 25 years, working with students at all levels from beginner through adult. Since 1995, he has been a band and woodwind specialist at Falcon Ridge Middle School in Apple Valley, Minnesota. In addition to his school duties, he is adjunct instructor in saxophone at St. Olaf College, and also maintains a select private saxophone studio. Mr. Claussen freelances as a soloist and ensemble performer throughout the Twin Cities metropolitan area, and has appeared as a solo and quartet recitalist and clinician in the United States, Canada, Finland, Norway, Germany and Switzerland. He holds the performer’s Certificat from the Conservatoire National de Region de Bordeaux, France, where he studied with eminent saxophonist and teacher Jean-Marie Londeix. He earned the master of music degree in saxophone performance from the University of Minnesota, studying with Ruben Haugen, and the bachelor of arts in music education from St. Olaf College.

Egemen Kesikli is a young Turkish composer honored with numerous performances across the United States, as well as Canada, Austria, Greece, and his home-country Turkey. His music has been praised with premieres by ensembles and soloists including the Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony Orchestra, Duluth Superior Symphony Orchestra, the Dissonart Ensemble, Luna Nova Ensemble, the UT New Music Ensemble, the St. Olaf Band, and the world-renowned tap-dancer Max Pollak. Egemen received his bachelor’s degree in music theory and composition in 2012 from St. Olaf College with Departmental Distinction, and his master’s in composition at the University of Texas at Austin. His teachers have included Timothy Mahr, Justin Merritt, Dan Welcher, and Donald Grantham. Egemen is currently pursuing his doctorate of musical arts degree at the University of Colorado at Boulder, studying with Carter Pann.

Reviewed as “gorgeous” (Washington Post) and “stunning” (Lawrence Journal-World), the music of Timothy C. Takach is rapidly gaining momentum in the concert world. Applauded for his melodic lines and rich, intriguing harmonies, Takach has received a number of commissions from various organizations including the St. Olaf Band, Cantus, Pavia Winds, the Bowling Green State University Men’s Chorus, VocalEssence, and the Western Michigan University Chorale. His compositions have been heard on NPR and have been recorded by various groups in North America. Takach has received grants from the American Composers Forum and Meet the Composer, and yearly ASCAP awards since 2004. He is the Vice President of Graphite Publishing and the Independent Music Publishers Cooperative. Takach studied music theory and composition at St. Olaf College where he graduated with honors in 2000. He is a full-time composer and lives in Minneapolis with his wife and two sons.
Paul Niemisto earned B.M. and M.M. degrees from the University of Michigan School of Music, and his doctorate from the University of Minnesota. Prior to arriving at St. Olaf in 1978 he was a public school band director in Nova Scotia, Canada. He has been a member of the Scandinavian Symphony Orchestra of Detroit, Toledo Symphony, Flint (Mich.) Symphony, Las Palmas Opera Festival Orchestra (Spain), and Atlantic Symphony Orchestra (Canada). Niemisto studied trombone with Edward Kleinhammer of the Chicago Symphony and tuba with Abe Torchinsky at Michigan. In recent years, he has been a clinician and soloist at festivals in Canada and Scandinavia, and he founded American Poijat (Boys of America), a Finnish brass band in 1990. His research interests in Finnish brass band history have yielded him a Fulbright research fellowship and he was awarded the Finnish Military Music Cross. He is founder and conductor of the Cannon Valley Regional Orchestra based in Northfield, which is observing its 35th anniversary this season. He founded the Vintage Band Festival in 2006, which occurred again in 2010 and 2013. The next VBF is scheduled for 2016, its tenth anniversary. Recently Paul was awarded the Northfield City Council’s “Living Treasure in the Arts” award for his contributions to the community.

Timothy Mahr holds a B.M. degree in composition and a B.A. degree in music education from St. Olaf College, a master’s degree in trombone performance, and a D.M.A. in instrumental conducting from The University of Iowa. An internationally acclaimed composer, Dr. Mahr received the 1991 Ostwald Award in the ABA Band Composition Contest for his composition The Soaring Hawk. He was elected to the American Bandmasters Association in 1993. Formerly director of bands at the University of Minnesota-Duluth and founding conductor of the Twin Ports Wind Ensemble, Dr. Mahr is the principal conductor of the Minnesota Symphonic Winds and is active as a clinician and guest conductor nationally and internationally. Notable commissions have come from the United States Air Force Band, the Music Educators National Conference, and the American Bandmasters Association. Thirty-nine of his works have been published, with many released on compact disc recordings and included on state contest lists.

Dr. Mahr is a past-president of the North Central Division of the College Band Directors National Association (1999-2001), has served on the Board of Directors of the National Band Association (1996-98) and was a founding board member of the Minnesota Band Directors Association.

*Timothy C. Takach is a fiscal year 2014 recipient of an Artist initiative grant from the Minnesota State Arts Board. This activity is made possible by the voters of Minnesota through a grant from the Minnesota State Arts Board, thanks to a legislative appropriation by the Minnesota State Legislature; and by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts.
