HYMN

Now Thank We All Our God

Now thank we all our God, with heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things has done, in Whom this world rejoices;
Who from our mothers' arms has blest us on our way
With countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us all in grace, and guide us when perplexed;
And free us from all harm, in this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given;
The Son and Spirit blest, who reign in highest Heaven;
The one eternal God, whom earth and heav'n adore;
For thus it was, is now, and shall be evermore.

The audience will please be seated.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF HONORS AND OTHER RECOGNITIONS

COLLEGE HYMN

Fram! Fram! St. Olaf!

The audience will please stand.

Kristmenn, Krossmenn in mission blessed,
Led by the spirit of truth,
Running the race, pursuing our quest,
Filled with the song of youth.
Founded in faith to render light,
Radiant today it crowns the height,
Rising glorious and, under God, victorious,
Fram! Fram! St. Olaf!
Impelled we sing, sing to thee.
Fram! Fram! St. Olaf! The hilltops ring:
Fram! Fram! Free!

Grant that spirit to lead us still
Onward as ages unroll,
Caught by the Krossmenn, shrined on the hill,
Steepled to lift the soul.
Give us again the heart aglow,
Stirred by the songs of Manitou.
Ever glorious and, under God, victorious.
Fram! Fram! St. Olaf!
Impelled we sing, sing to thee.
Fram! Fram! St. Olaf! The hilltops ring:
Fram! Fram! Free!

THE PROGRAM

Xingdu (Maggie) Chen '18

Senior Speaker

Xingdu “Maggie” Chen, from Beijing, China, is graduating with a major in American Studies and concentrations in ESL Education and Linguistics. She is a member and co-leader of the Blue Key Honor Society, which recognizes balanced and all-around excellence in scholarship, leadership, and service.

While at St. Olaf, Maggie has held a variety of positions with numerous organizations. She was an officer for the Education Minnesota Student Program for two years, which gave her an opportunity to participate in statewide bi-annual conferences. She also was elected to serve on the selection committee for Minnesota’s Teacher of the Year. On campus, Maggie worked in the admissions office throughout her four years at St. Olaf, starting as a tour guide and gradually taking on more responsibilities, which included supporting the recruitment of international students, specifically students from China.

Maggie’s St. Olaf education has included many off-campus study experiences. One of her personal highlights was the Multicultural Education in Hawaii Interim, where she shadowed teachers in both a public high school and a private K–12 school and discussed multicultural education issues with a diverse population. She spent a semester in Washington D.C., where she studied U.S. foreign policy at American University while also conducting research about Washington D.C. public schools. Despite a full schedule, Maggie still found time to intern at the Institute of Educational Leadership, which aims to equip leaders to better prepare children and youth for college, careers, and citizenship. Additional internships included her work as a camp counselor at the Chinese village of Concordia Language Villages, a Concordia College program, and two summers of teaching academic writing to middle school students through Breakthrough Twin Cities, a program that prepares under-resourced youth for college success and leadership.

Among the things that Maggie values most about her time at St. Olaf are the close relationships she built with students and staff, and with many professors whom she felt genuinely cared about her as an individual as well as cared about her personal development. She has always felt supported and respected at St. Olaf. Some of her favorite classes were her education courses, notably Teaching ESL K–12 with Professor Jill Watson and Professor Heather Campbell’s Differentiated Instruction for Exceptional Learners course that focuses on students with Special Education needs.

Following graduation, Maggie will be entering a Master of Education program at the University of Minnesota, where she will earn an elementary school teaching license and be certified to teach dual-immersion programs. Maggie is considering many future options. She would love to be a secondary school ESL teacher who works with immigrants, or a Chinese immersion elementary school teacher, or an admission officer who works with international students.

Maggie’s parents are Zhaoxia Chen and Wenao Xu.

THE PROGRAM

THE COLLEGE HYMN

“Fram! Fram! St. Olaf!” takes its title from “Fram, Fram, Kristmenn, Krossmenn,” the motto of St. Olaf College. The motto — which means “Forward, Forward, People of Christ, People of the Cross” — was adopted in 1874 by the Reverend Bernt Julius Muus, founder of St. Olaf. It is derived from the battle cry of Norway’s patron saint and eternal king, Olav II Haraldsson, King of Norway (A.D. 1016–1030). Olav’s death at the Battle of Stiklestad made him a rallying point for nationalistic movements and helped establish the Christian church in Norway.

The song was written by F. Melius Christiansen — longtime conductor of the St. Olaf Choir — in 1927 and was used for the first time at Commencement in 1935. Though it was not sung again at Commencement until 1966, it has been a permanent part of the ceremony ever since.

THE ST. OLAF COLLEGE GONFALON

Composed of the college colors and showcasing the college seal, the St. Olaf College gonfalon leads the commencement procession. Following the gonfalon in the procession will be President David R. Anderson ’74 and Provost and Dean of the College Marci Sortor, the platform party, the faculty, the traditional black and gold class banner announcing the class year, and the graduating class.

Gonfalons first appeared in medieval Italy, where every hamlet had its own brightly colored banner with symbolic references to the town. It was carried in official processions by a gonfaloniere. Today, gonfalons appear in college and university commencement exercises worldwide.

THE ACADEMIC PROCESSION

The traditional academic procession introduces many of the more formal and significant events at St. Olaf, as it does on most college and university campuses. Although the history of wearing distinctive apparel as an indication of scholarship and academic rank dates back to 1321, the practice was not adopted throughout the United States until about 1900.

The cap worn almost universally in academic processions is the Oxford cap, better known as the mortarboard. It is always black. A different style, called the Cambridge cap, resembles a large beret.

The use of a dark robe in academic processions is thought to have arisen from the clerical practice of wearing a cape or mantle in religious processions in the 12th and 13th centuries, when universities arose from cathedral schools.

Traditionally, gowns are also black. However, a number of universities have adopted alternate gowns that use their traditional school color.

The academic hoods, worn around the neck and down the back of the gown, are lined with the official colors of the college or university conferring the degree. The binding or edging of the hood is usually distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains: economics, copper; education, light blue; fine arts, brown; humanities, white; law, purple; library science, lemon; medicine, green; music, pink; nursing, apricot; philosophy, dark blue; physical education, sage green; science, golden yellow; social science, cream; social work, citron; speech, silver gray; theology, scarlet.

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES

Please Note:

As a courtesy to all graduates and members of their families, everyone in the audience is asked to remain until the end of the commencement ceremony.

Skoglund Center, where ceremonies will be held in the event of inclement weather, is equipped with a hearing assistance sound system for those who are hearing impaired. Please contact an usher if you would like to obtain a receiver.

The following names do not constitute an official graduation list. The students listed here were considered candidates for the degree indicated as of 12 noon on Friday, May 25, 2018, when the program was printed, as well as others invited to take part in the ceremony. We have made every effort to ensure this list is as complete and accurate as possible.

SENIOR GIVING

Thank you to all the students who made a gift to St. Olaf College as part of the Senior Class Gift. The Senior Class Gift is a student-led initiative designed to introduce seniors to the St. Olaf Fund. The college is committed to creating a culture of philanthropy where students and alumni give back financially to support current and future St. Olaf students. Gifts to the St. Olaf Fund provide support for academic programming, campus life, and financial aid — all to enhance the St. Olaf experience. This honor roll recognizes gifts made through Thursday, May 17, 2018.
