Sure on this Shining Night

Brady Martin '28, piano

Sure on this shining night
Of starmade shadows round,
Kindness must watch for me
This side the ground.

The late year lies down the north.
All is healed, all is health.
High summer holds the earth.
Hearts all whole.

Morten Lauridsen (b. 1943)

Sure on this shining night
I weep for wonder
Wand'ring far alone
Of shadows on the stars.

When We Sing

When we sing, we are one.
Ev'ry body, come let's sing.
Oh, let's sing. Oh, yes, we are one.
When we sing we're breathing together,
 living life in harmony.
Ev'ry heartbeat pulsing together when we sing.
When we sing we're one mind and body,
 joining heartbeats through our song.
Ev'ry breath we take is together. We are one.

Rosephanye Powell (b. 1962)

Through our songs we live, we love,
 we breathe as one community in harmony.
In times of war, our songs bring peace.
They ease our troubled minds.
Inhaling, exhaling, we're breathing together.
We're being, we're feeling, we're sharing
 while singing together.
We sing for joy, peace, life, "la, la, la, la, la, la."
That's why we sing.
So, let us always sing our songs!

I Will Arise and Go

Ella Boers '25, piano

Shawn Kirchner (b. 1970)

I will arise and go now, and go to Innisfree.
And a small cabin build there, of clay and wattles made;
Nine bean-rows I will have there, a hive for the honey-bee,
And live alone in the bee-loud glade.

And I shall have some peace there, for peace comes dropping slow,
Dropping for the veils of the morning to where the cricket sing;
There midnight's all a glimmer, and a moon a purple glow,
And evening full of the linnet's wings.

I will arise and go now, for always night and day
I hear lake water lapping with low sounds by the shore;
While I stand on the roadway, or on the pavements grey,
I hear it in the deep heart's core.

— "The Lake Isle of Innisfree" by William Butler Yeats

Song in My Heart

Jocelyn Hagen '03 (b. 1980)

Jocelyn Hagen '03, piano

Now is a moment between birth and death
That I must fill with song; infinity
Trembles upon my lips with every breath
And must cry for beauty endlessly —
Beauty that lies in small and simple things:
One note that breaks against the heart's warm bars,
Joy on the rim of pain, the light that sings
In silver metaphysics of the stars.

There will be time for silence soft and deep
When springtimes brimmed with blossoms shall go by Unheeded by the singer who will sleep
With winds and robins under a wide sky —
The tangle of songs in her heart no longer heard
For beauty articulate in one infinite Word.

— Text by Sister M. Thérèse

Jocelyn Hagen composes music that has been described as “simply magical” (Fanfare Magazine) and “dramatic and deeply moving” (Star Tribune, Minneapolis/St. Paul). She is a pioneer in the field of composition, pushing the expectations of musicians and audiences with large-scale multimedia works, electro-acoustic music, dance, and opera. Her melodic music is rhythmically driven and texturally complex, rich in color and deeply heartfelt. A champion of the female spirit, many of her projects focus on the stories of women. She is a co-founder of Graphite Publishing and the band Nation, singing her heart out every chance she gets.

Butterfly

Mia Makaroff (b. 1970)

arr. Mia Makaroff and Anna-Mari Kähärä

Sweet is the sound of my newborn wings,
I stretch them open and let them dry.
I haven't seen this world before but I'm excused, I'm a butterfly.

Sweet is the touch of your newborn wings,
we fly in circles, we play with the sun.
We haven't seen this world before,
so fair, so bright, so blue the sky.

Love me, love me on the leaves
before we say goodbye.
Love me, kiss me with the breeze,
you will be my lullaby.
Tomorrow I'll die. I shall die.
You'll be my lullaby.

Love me, kiss me with the breeze,
kiss me with the breeze.
Love me, love me on the leaves.
Love me, love me!

Love me, love me on the leaves
before we say goodbye.
Love me! Kiss me with the breeze,
you'll be my lullaby.
Tomorrow I'll die.

Sweet is the wind as it gently blows
the day away and the nighttime comes.

Great are the wonders that silence shows,
I fall asleep and I dream of the sun
and my butterfly.

American Folksong

MANITOU SINGERS:

High on Manitou Heights
St. Olaf College stands;
There's a place where I ever long to be
Where the students each day,
Enjoy their work and play;
There's a place where I ever belong to be.

Give me a place on the Dear Old Hill,
For fondly I love it still.
I sigh night and day,
I long to be all way,
At St. Olaf, the College on the Hill.

Give me a place on the Dear Old Hill,
For fondly I love it still.
I sigh night and day,
I long to be all way,
At St. Olaf, the College on the Hill.
