ABOUT THE ST. OLAF HANDBELL CHOIR

The St. Olaf Handbell choir is the premier ensemble in a handbell program of four choirs at St. Olaf College. The ensemble is an auditioned group that meets twice a week. On campus they perform for Sunday church services, student recitals, and an annual spring concert featuring all the handbell choirs. In addition, they regularly perform off campus at church services, retirement centers and various concerts. They performed their first Kid's Concert in 2007 and enjoyed it so much that they have made it an annual event. Twenty-two years ago, the group began touring, performing in many cities in Minnesota, South Dakota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Nebraska, Missouri, Iowa and Illinois. Just this year they participated again in the critically acclaimed St. Olaf Christmas Festival. Five times they have performed in the festival and premiered Glories Ring, Joyous Noel and Gladsome Bells written for handbells and orchestra by former faculty member Steven Amundson. The choir has premiered thirty-eight pieces in Mahr's tenure.
