Athletics Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony

2026

Lindsey (Boeser) Bradley | Class of 2008 | Hockey

Lindsey (Boeser) Bradley '08 is one of the most decorated performers in the history of the St. Olaf women's hockey program. One of six student-athletes in program history to earn at least three All-MIAC accolades, she was also named an American Hockey Coaches Association First Team West Region All-American in 2006-07. Boeser was also named to the 2004-05 MIAC All-Rookie Team and was a 2006-07 USCHO Second Team All-West Region honoree.

Boeser is St. Olaf's all-time leader in both points and assists with 109 points and 63 assists. She also ranks third in program history with six shorthanded goals, tied for fourth with 46 goals, and tied for fifth with seven game-winning goals. Boeser holds three of St. Olaf's top-five single-season point totals, including a record-tying 39-point season in 2006-07. She also holds three of the top-five single-season assist totals, including a record-tying 25 in 2005-06.

Boeser's play helped St. Olaf to the winningest three-year stretch in program history with 43 wins from 2004-05 through 2006-07, including 15-win seasons in 2004-05 and 2006-07 that are the winningest seasons in program history. The Oles also advanced to the semifinals of the MIAC Playoffs in each of those three seasons.

Erin Collins | Class of 1999 | Basketball, Softball

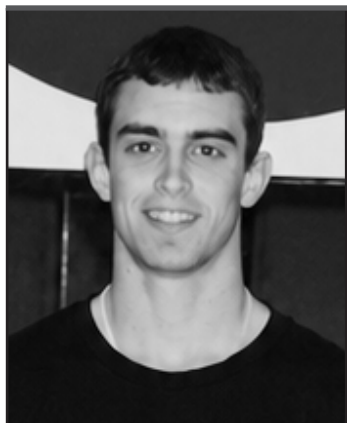

Erin Collins was a two-sport standout in basketball and softball for the Oles, earning All-MIAC honors in both sports during her time on the Hill. In basketball, she collected six total MIAC postseason accolades, including landing All-MIAC honors in 1997-98 and 1998-99. She was also an MIAC All-Defensive Team member in both of those seasons, an Honorable Mention All-MIAC selection in 1996-97, and a member of the MIAC All-Rookie Team in 1995-96.

Collins remains St. Olaf's all-time leader with 192 made three-pointers, 377 assists, 253 steals, and an average of 2.6 steals per game, while ranking third in program history with a three-point field-goal percentage of 35.8 percent and an average of 3.8 assists per game. She holds two of the program's top-five single-season three-point make totals, two of the top-six three-point percentage seasons, three of the top-seven single-season assist totals, and four of the top-10 single-season steal totals.

In softball, Collins was a two-time Honorable Mention All-MIAC performer before landing All-MIAC and National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Third Team All-Midwest Region honors as a senior. She remains St. Olaf's all-time leader with 518 at-bats, 136 runs scored, and 55 stolen bases, while ranking third with 156 games played and fifth with 170 hits. Her 42 runs scored in 1997 are tied for the highest total in a season by an Ole, while her 23 stolen bases in 1998 stood as a single-season record until this past spring.

Cory Dingels | Class of 2002 | Track & Field, Football

Cory Dingels is one of the St. Olaf men's track and field program's top jumpers and was a four-year starter at defensive back for the Ole football team. In track and field, he was a three-time All-American in the long jump, finishing as the national runner-up indoors in 2002 and placing fourth indoors in 2000 and fourth outdoors in 2002. Overall, he was a five-time national qualifier in the long jump and a three-time national qualifier in the high jump, placing in the top 10 nationally twice in the high jump in addition to the three All-America accolades in the long jump.

Dingels was a nine-time MIAC champion, winning five conference titles in the long jump, three in the high jump, and one in the pentathlon during his standout career. In 2001, he was honored with the MIAC Indoor Performance of the Meet after winning the high jump and long jump titles. He remains St. Olaf's indoor record holder in the long jump with a mark of 7.25 meters and was the outdoor record holder in the long jump from 2002 to 2026 with a mark of 7.32 meters. Dingels also ranks on St. Olaf's all-time top-10 lists in the pentathlon (2nd), indoor high jump (tied for 3rd), indoor triple jump (8th), and outdoor high jump (9th), in addition to being part of two indoor top-10 relays.

In football, Dingels recorded multiple interceptions in each of his four seasons, finishing his career with 10 interceptions, 23 passes defended, two fumble recoveries, and three blocked kicks. His play helped St. Olaf to back-to-back winning seasons as a junior and senior, including a 7-3 mark in 2000.

Molly Erickson | Class of 2013 | Golf

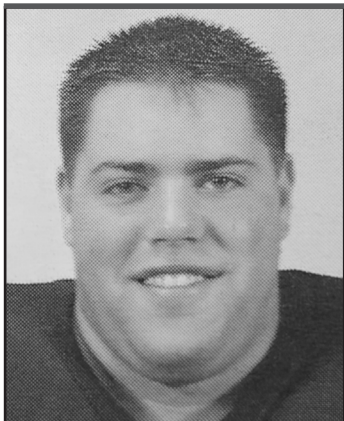

Molly Erickson is the most-decorated student-athlete in the history of the St. Olaf women's golf program after earning two All-America accolades during her career. She was named a Women's Golf Coaches Association (WGCA) Second Team All-American as a senior and a WGCA Honorable Mention All-American as a junior. In her two appearances in the NCAA Division III Women's Golf Championship, Erickson finished as the national runner-up as a junior and was tied for 22nd as a senior.

The 2012-13 MIAC individual champion, Erickson was twice named the MIAC Player of the Year, earning the accolade in 2011-12 and 2012-13. She is one of four Oles to earn three All-MIAC accolades in their careers, doing so with three top-seven finishes at the conference meet. Erickson's play helped lead the Oles to MIAC team championships in 2011-12 and 2012-13 for the lone titles in program history, as well as a ninth-place national finish in 2012 and a 15th-place national finish in 2013. She holds two of the three best single-season scoring averages in program history, averaging 78.4 strokes per round in each of her final two seasons and ranks third in career scoring average by an Ole at 80.8.

Jeff Flugum was a standout offensive lineman for the St. Olaf football team and was a thrower for the track and field team for two years before injuries curtailed his throwing career. He was a USAFootball.com Honorable Mention All-American in 2000 and a two-time Football Gazette All-West Region Second Team performer.

Flugum started every game of his career for St. Olaf and earned All-MIAC accolades in all four of his seasons. After back-to-back second-team accolades as a first year and sophomore, he was a First Team All-MIAC selection in both 2000 and 2001. Flugum was also a two-time team captain, the team's Offensive MVP in 1999, the team's Most Valuable Freshman in 1998, and a Lutheran Brotherhood Honorable Mention All-American in 2000. His play at left tackle contributed to the careers of Hall of Famers Brian Sprout and Manny Spreigl. In track and field, he placed as high as fifth in the conference in the shot put at the 1999 MIAC Indoor Championships to help the Oles to a runner-up team finish.

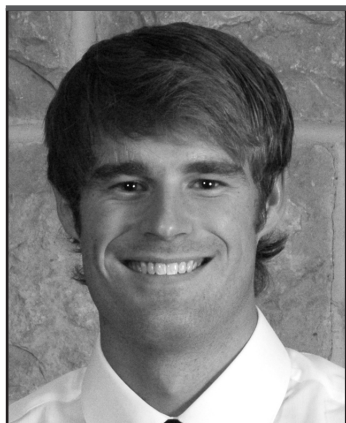

Bobby Fong | Class of 2012 | Basketball

Bobby Fong was a four-year standout for the St. Olaf men's basketball team and is one of the top scorers in program history. Fong garnered MIAC postseason accolades in all four of his seasons, including back-to-back All-Conference honors in his final two seasons after being an honorable-mention performer in each of his first two seasons.

A 2011-12 D3hoops.com Third Team All-West Region selection, Fong ranks fifth in program history in scoring with 1,323 points, while also ranking eighth with 478 made field goals and eighth with 91 games started. He started 91 of the 93 games he played in while donning a St. Olaf uniform and averaged at least 12.0 points per game in all four of his seasons. Fong had four 30-point performances over the course of his career, including a career-high 36 points against Bethel on February 4, 2012. His play helped St. Olaf to a combined 33 wins in his final two seasons, as the Oles qualified for the MIAC Playoffs in each of those two years.

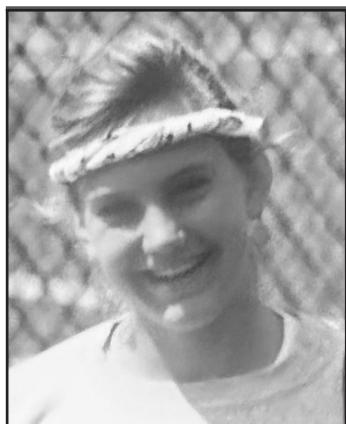

Todd Mathison | Class of 2009 | Baseball

Todd Mathison put together one of the best careers of any pitcher in the history of the St. Olaf baseball program and also played infielder when he wasn't on the mound during his decorated career. A 2006 American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) Third Team All-American, he was also a rare four-time ABCA All-Midwest Region selection, earning first-team honors in 2006 and 2009 and second-team honors in 2007 and 2008.

Mathison is one of four Oles to be an All-MIAC selection in all four of their seasons and was voted the MIAC Player of the Year in 2008. His six shutouts and 27 wins are both all-time program records, with the 27 wins ranking tied for third in MIAC history. Mathison led the MIAC in ERA in 2006 and 2007 and did not allow an earned run against conference foes in 2006. He also ranks in the program's top 10 in opponent batting average (2nd), innings pitched (4th), fewest walks per nine innings (4th), appearances (4th), starts (5th), ERA (5th), saves (5th), assists (7th), complete games (7th), and strikeouts (tied for 8th). Mathison's teams went a combined 122-46, appeared in three NCAA Regionals, won two MIAC Playoff titles, and won the 2007 MIAC regular-season title.

Danielle Niska | Class of 1991 | Tennis

Danielle Niska is one of the most accomplished singles and doubles players in St. Olaf women's tennis history. Over the course of her career, Niska qualified for the NCAA Division III Women's Tennis Championship three times in singles and once in doubles, in addition to team appearances in her final two seasons.

Niska played No. 1 doubles in all four of her seasons and, after starting her rookie season at No. 2 singles, moved up to No. 1 singles later in the season and stayed there for the remainder of her career. A four-year all-conference honoree, she finished all four seasons of her career in the Intercollegiate Tennis Association national singles rankings, including a career-best No. 13 ranking as a senior. She was also ranked No. 37 in 1987-88, No. 24 in 1988-89, and No. 29 in 1989-90 in the end-of-season singles rankings.

In doubles, she was ranked in the national rankings at No. 27 in 1988-89 and No. 20 in 1990-91 with two different partners. Niska's teams finished in the ITA's national team rankings three times, concluding the season sixth in 1989-90, 12th in 1990-91, and 25th in 1988-89.

Kristin (Quade) Cammarata | Class of 1997 | Swimming & Diving

Kristin (Quade) Cammarata won multiple MIAC individual titles in all four of her seasons during a dominant era for women's swimming and diving in the conference, while also racking up a total of 17 All-America accolades. Nationally, Quade earned four individual All-America or Honorable Mention All-America accolades, highlighted by an eighth-place finish in the 100-yard freestyle in 1995.

Quade also swam on 13 All-America or Honorable Mention All-America relays, including the third-place 800-yard freestyle relay as a senior and a pair of seventh-place relays in that event the prior two seasons. She helped the Oles to three top-20 national finishes during her career, led by 13th-place performances in 1995 and 1997. On the conference level, Quade won nine of the 12 individual freestyle sprint events during her career and was second in the other three. She also swam on 13 MIAC championship relays and was on two more runner-up relays, as St. Olaf won MIAC titles in each of her seasons as part of a run of 11 team championships in a row.

Grant Wintheiser | Class of 2015 | Cross Country, Track & Field

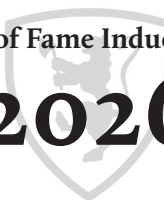

Grant Wintheiser earned seven All-America accolades, as well as one individual national title and one team title, during his decorated career for the St. Olaf men's cross country and track and field programs. After being the top finisher on St. Olaf's 2013 NCAA Division III title-winning team, Wintheiser won the individual cross country national title the following year while being named the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association National Athlete of the Year and USTFCCCA Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

In cross country, Wintheiser finished in the top three nationally in each of his final three seasons, placing third in both 2012 and 2013 prior to the 2014 national title. He also was a four-time USTFCCCA All-Region performer, including winning regional titles in 2012 and 2014, while also being a three-time MIAC individual champion and three-time MIAC Athlete of the Year from 2012 to 2014. He helped the Oles to conference and regional titles in 2012, 2013, and 2014, as well as four top-25 national finishes, highlighted by the 2013 team title and a 2014 runner-up showing.

On the track, Wintheiser was a two-time All-American and six-time MIAC champion over the course of his career. Indoors, he was the national runner-up in the 3,000-meter run in both 2014 and 2015 and won the event at the conference meet three times from 2013-15, in addition to an MIAC title in the one-mile run in 2014. Outdoors, he was a two-time All-American in the 1,500-meter run, taking fourth in 2014 and eighth in 2015, and won individual MIAC 5,000-meter run titles in 2013 and 2014.
