Mary Grace Johnson, violin

Award-winning violinist Mary Grace Johnson has performed as a soloist and chamber musician throughout Europe and North America and is the concertmaster of the West Virginia Symphony. She has been a prizewinner and finalist at numerous competitions including the Bartok World String Quartet Competition in Budapest, Hungary and MTNA's National Young Artist Competition and has been featured on NPR's Performance Today.

Johnson is a co-leader and program curator for Kinetic Ensemble, Houston's premiere conductorless string orchestra. Her recordings with Kinetic have been released to critical acclaim on Orchid Classics and Bright Shiny Things. She has appeared as soloist with several orchestras including the Nashville Symphony and the Vanderbilt University Orchestra, and performed for the Duke of Kent in Cornwall, U.K. as part of the International Musicians Seminar at Prussia Cove.

A firm believer in advocacy through music, Johnson aims to center underrepresented voices, especially women, in her recital programming. She has premiered works by over a dozen composers, including Karim Al-Zand, Patrick Harlin, Amy Nam, and Nicky Sohn. In 2023, she commissioned and premiered Nicky Sohn's violin concerto, Home, with Kinetic Ensemble on a program celebrating female expression and addiction recovery. Upcoming projects include premiering the full-orchestra version of Sohn's violin concerto with the West Virginia Symphony and recording the complete solo violin works by Polish violinist/composer Grażyna Bacewicz.

A devoted educator, Johnson is the assistant professor of violin at West Virginia University and spends her summers teaching at Interlochen Arts Camp. She has degrees from Vanderbilt University, the Juilliard School, and Rice University's Shepherd School of Music, where she studied with Cornelia Heard, Christian Teal, Laurie Smukler and Paul Kantor. When not performing, she enjoys camping, backpacking, and experimenting with new recipes.

Truth

Meredith Ivory '27, djembe

Andrea Ramsey (b. 1977)

My roots are earth
Muddy river and honeysuckle
Sturdy and rigid
Like farmhouse planks
I shared a sisterhood
With the amber grasses
My dreams climbed endlessly
Like the kudzu in July
I shared a sisterhood
With the amber grasses
My dreams climbed endlessly
No fear in sight
In nature, in naive youth
All the forest was possible
All the pasture was my home
My mother told me I was beautiful

And I believed her then
Why shouldn't I?
There is no doubt in a pond
Insecurity does not grow in a meadow
It will not sprout beneath the southern pines
It is planted by the boys on the school bus
Tended by the words of small minds
And words may wound you
But are they true?
You are beautiful, you are enough
You must believe in that
Believe the truth
My roots are earth
Muddy river and honeysuckle
My roots are beautiful
My roots are strong

Now Let Me Fly!

Traditional Spiritual
arr. Stacey Gibbs (b. 1962)

Some glad morning,
Some mornin' when this life is over,
Let me fly, now let me fly,
I'll fly away, away,
To a home, a home on God's celestial shore.

Now, let me fly, fly, fly away,
Let me fly to Mount Zion
Yes, Lord, celestial shore
Now let me fly!

Way down yonder in de middle o' de fiel'
Angel workin' on a chariot wheel,
Not so partic'lar 'bout workin' at de wheel
But I jes' want to see how de char-iot feel.

Now let me fly, fly, fly away,
Let me fly to Mount Zion
Yes, Lord, celestial shore
Now let me fly!

See dat hypocrite on de street
First thing he do is show his teeth.
Nex' thing he do is to tell a lie
An' de bes' thing to do is jus' pass him by.

Now let me fly, fly, fly away,
Let me fly to Mount Zion
Yes, Lord, celestial shore
Now let me fly!

I got a mothuh in de Promise' Lan'
An' I ain't gonna stop till I shake her han'
Not so partic'lar 'bout shakin' her han',
Lord, I jes' wan' to meet her in de Promis' Lan'

Now let me fly, fly, fly away,
Let me fly to Mount Zion
Yes, Lord, celestial shore
Now let me fly!
